

Josep Arbiol

President of the Cultural Association 'Jordi el Mussol'.

Director of the Valencia Film Festival for Children, Youth and Teachers "MICE. Mostra Internacional de Cinema Educatiu"

Media Advisor of Teachers Training Service of Valencian department of education.

Cultural manager.

Independent audiovisual producer.

Holder of a Diploma in Teaching . University of Valencia.

Degree in Spanish philology. University of Valencia.

He was born in Estivella (Valencia - Spain) in 1962 and he works as a teacher at CEIP Santa Teresa in the Carmen Neighborhood in Valencia. He has a long career in audiovisual media both in Spain and abroad. His direction in educational films with children have been awarded in numerous festivals and competitions both national and international (Greece, Romania, India, Hungary, Bolivia, Croatia, Italy, Argentina, India and South Korea among others).

Most of the artistic activities that he has carried out are educational. As a teacher and as a creative person, his job is to provide more channels for the creativity of young people, trying to achieve the success that leads them to develop their owncreativity without copying other ways. However, to work creatively, you should be creative.

He has taught courses in the CEFIRE of Valencia and he has given conferences and participated in roundtables in Spain and internationally

He is usual collaborator of the Faculty of Education and the Faculty of Philosophy and Educational Sciences of the University of Valencia. He also teaches courses in the Summer University of Gandia.

He is a member of the ECFA (European Children's Film Association) based in Brussels.He is a member of CIFEJ (International Center pour les Films de l' Enfance et la Jeunesse) based in Tehran.

He is a member of the Red Unial . Audiovisual Universe of the Latin American child with headquarters in Havana .

He has also worked as stage director for plays and concerts in Spain and Germany.

He has coauthored three books published by the Diputación de Castellón ,

Department of Education and City council of Alzira around Education and worked with various specialized journals such as Cuadernos de Pedagogia, Revista Futura,

Saó and publications of the University of summer of Gandia among others .