

Selven Naidu studied filmmaking in London and Paris before starting his own film production company.

He also directed the Production Department of the Mauritius Broadcasting Corporation, the Mauritius Film Development Corporation and RTA, a private television & radio station in Madagascar.

His first short fiction film won an award at the Director's Fortnight in Cannes in 2001.

He is co-founder of Al Qarra Broadcasting Network – an african television news channel in arabic and french languages.

Selven Naidu is presently directing his own film production company : Making Movies

The Mauritius Film Development Corporation (MFDC) was set up in August 1986 under the aegis of the Ministry of Arts and Culture to promote film activities in Mauritius. Since 2002, the MFDC benefits from the support of the Ministry of Industry, Financial Services and Corporate Affairs. Its mission is to promote and facilitate the development of film and audiovisual in the country. It also aims to establish international relationships with persons or bodies for the promotion of films in Mauritius. The MFDC provides support and services to foreign film crews shooting in the region, and they also encourage investement in co-production joint ventures.

Le Mauritius Film Development Corporation (MFDC) fut établi en 1986 sous l'hospice du Ministère des arts et de la culture pour promouvoir l'industrie cinématographique du pays. Depuis 2002, le MFDC dépend du Ministère de l'industrie. Sa mission est de promouvoir et de faciliter le développement du cinéma et de l'audiovisuel national. Il veut aussi établir et développer des liens avec des individus et des institutions à l'international permettant la promotion du cinéma dans le pays.